

SOCKS!

Have a great first day of December, everyone! I hope you will all have a great time enjoying our creative Advent calendar.

Today I am presenting you with an idea for a quickly knit Christmas decoration; the geniously easy tiny socks by Gudrun alias calpurnia1408: The superminis!
<http://www.ravelry.com/patterns/library/superminis>

For my socks
I have knitted the cuffs in a rib pattern. That is already the only change I made.

You might want to knit enough of these to make an Advent calendar for your loved ones and to overcome the very common place second sock syndrome. What better exposition therapy could there be?

In this sense: Have a healthy and merry Christmas time and enjoy our calendar!

